Souvenir 3D/4D Ultrasound Agreement

There are several things that you should know and understand before agreeing to have this ultrasound performed for entertainment purposes.

- This ultrasound is not a diagnostic ultrasound and is not being used for medical decision making. Your provider will schedule a diagnostic ultrasound for you at the appropriate time in your pregnancy.
- The 3D/4D ultrasound is best done between 28 and 32 weeks as this is the best time to capture a more realistic image of the physical characteristics of the baby.
- The 3D/4D ultrasound uses sound waves to create an image of the baby; it is not an X-ray and does not use radiation. Ultrasound is considered safe in pregnancy.
- The cost of a 3D/4D ultrasound done for entertainment purposes or to obtain souvenir images is NOT covered by any insurance company; therefore the cost must be paid before the ultrasound is performed.
- Your experience of seeing the baby on the ultrasound screen for an extended length of time is part of what you receive when you pay for this ultrasound.
- The quality of the images obtained during the 3D/4D ultrasound is entirely dependent on the position and movement of the baby, the size of the mother and the amount of amniotic fluid around the baby. The ultrasonographer will spend time with you to try to obtain the best images, but you must understand that NO REFUND is offered just because no “cute images” are captured.

We offer four different packages for your convenience. Please check the package you would like. You must sign the Payment and Entertainment Ultrasound Agreement below and return this form to the receptionist along with the appropriate payment.
